Travelling by Car from the Motorway

Travelling from South on M1

- ◆ Exit the M1 at J33
- ◆ Follow the signs for Sheffield city centre (A57)
- ◆ Stay on A57 for about five miles and follow signs for A61 North (Barnsley).
- ◆ After 1 mile you should now see the tram lines on your left, and soon afterwards a bus lane, to the left. (Still on A61 Barnsley)
- ◆ Once you have passed the bus lane, take the next turning on the left. This is Montgomery Terrace Road.
- ◆ Turn right at the traffic lights and right at the next set of traffic lights, you are now on Bedford St, entrance to SCT is on your right.

Travelling from North on M1

- ◆ Leave motorway at Junction 36
- ◆ Follow the sign for Sheffield A61, follow this road for approximately 7 miles.
- ◆ Look out for WICKES D.I.Y. on your left. Get into the right hand lane and follow the sign for Uppertorpe Medico Legal Centre. At 'T' junction turn right onto Infirmaroy Road (with Tramlines on)
- ◆ Go straight ahead, at the second set of traffic lights turn right onto Bedford St,
SCT is on your right.

Travelling by Public Transport

Tram

- ◆ From the Midland Mainline station in Sheffield, it is easier to take the tram. Follow the signs for Supertram in the station. The tram leaves from the platform closest to the station.
- ◆ Take a tram in the direction of Middlewood or Malin Bridge.
- ◆ Ask for Infirmaroy Road stop. (Tesco)
- ◆ Cross the road and turn left into Bedford Street. (Just before the Serenity shop).
- ◆ Sheffield Community Transport is on your right.

Bus

From the City Centre (Snig Hill), you can take any of the following : -

- ◆ 81, 82, 83, 84, 86, 88, 13, 14
- ◆ Ask for the stop before Tesco on Infirmaroy Road. This is close to Montgomery Terrace Road.
- ◆ Cross the road and turn left into Bedford Street. (Just before the Serenity shop).
- ◆ Sheffield Community Transport is on your right.
